THE MAHARAJAH

TANDOORI RESTAURANT

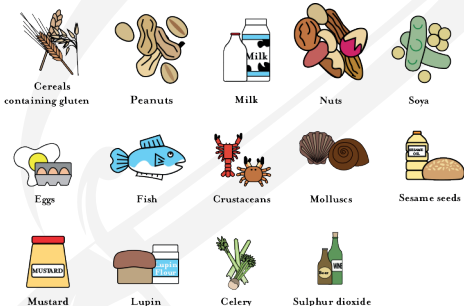

Maharajah, also spelled maharaja, Sanskrit mahārāja, (from mahat, “great,” and rājan, “king”), an administrative rank in India; generally speaking, a Hindu prince ranking above a raja. Used historically, maharaja refers specifically to a ruler of one of the principal native states of India. The feminine form is maharani (maharanee).

Whether you choose to dine with us in the restaurant or wish to take home your Maharajah experience, you will be met with high quality and pleasurable dishes.

We are proud of the level of service and standards that we provide, and please note that this is not a fast food service we offer. Great care and attention is given to every dish we create, ensuring that the preparation of your food is met to your satisfaction and enjoyment. We cook everything to order and as such, we ask for your patience when waiting for your meal.

We use 100% beef, lamb and chicken, none of which is processed meats.

If for any reason you are not entirely happy with any dish we prepare for you in our kitchen, please advise a member of our team immediately so that we can rectify the situation.
